B&B UPDATE

We wanted to take a moment to share how excited we are about the start of our club season. It has been an incredible beginning, and we couldn't be more proud of all of our players. Across both our boys and girls teams, the energy, effort, and commitment we've seen so far have been outstanding. The kids are showing up ready to work, pushing themselves to get better, and supporting one another the right way. It's been great to see their enthusiasm and how much they're embracing the process. What's been most impressive is the willingness of our players to compete, learn, and grow each day. That mindset is what makes this program special, and it's what will continue to drive their development throughout the season. We're excited for what's ahead and look forward to continuing to build on this strong start. Thank you to all of our families for your support—it truly makes a difference. Let's keep it going! Take a moment to hear what some of our coaches have to say about the season so far!

Amy Bahl (Girls Director): “The start of the club season has been great so far! These girls have been putting in the work every single practice, pushing themselves, improving, and really starting to come together within their teams. You can see the growth already, and it makes it even more rewarding to watch them compete and have fun out on the court. Looking forward to an amazing season!!”

Coach Mike Puccio (1st Year with B&B): “Coaching with B and B Academy is an absolute pleasure. It's a unique club setting with the relentless attention to detail and making kids play the “right way”. Michael and Stephen, as well as all of the coaches, create a collaborative environment that provides consistency for the players all the way down to the youngest levels”.

Hubert Price (1st Year with B&B): “The start of the season has been marked with nothing but progress. The growth of the players has been enormous already and I am beyond excited to continue seeing them grow not only as players but also young adults. The flip side of this coin has been the culture that is B&B. The dedication of the entire staff, the backside of the club and its organization has been nothing but supportive. I am beyond blessed to be able to coach these young men and also to be part of such a respected club. Massive thanks to the Bahl brothers and all others who have helped guide this transition for me”.
